BEFORE THE NEVADA COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE

IN THE MATTER OF THE HONORABLE DOUGLAS E. SMITH, Eighth Judicial District Court, Department 8, County of Clark, State of Nevada, Respondent.

CASE NO.: 2016-068-P

STIPULATION AND ORDER OF CONSENT TO DISCIPLINE

To resolve the Formal Statement of Charges filed on April 19, 2018, pending before the Nevada Commission on Judicial Discipline (the "Commission"), the Respondent and the Commission stipulate to the following pursuant to Commission Procedural Rule 29 ("Rule 29"):

1. Respondent admits that he violated the Revised Nevada Code of Judicial Conduct (the "Code"), including Judicial Canon 1, Rule 1.1, failing to comply with the law, including the Code; Rule 1.2, failing to act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary and avoiding impropriety and the appearance of impropriety; Canon 2, Rule 2.2, failing to perform all duties of his judicial office fairly and impartially; Rule 2.3(B), failing to refrain from manifesting bias, prejudice, and harassment; Rule 2.5(A), failing to perform judicial duties competently and diligently; Rule 2.8(B), failing to be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants and lawyers; and Rule 2.16(A), failing to cooperate and be candid and honest with judicial discipline authorities, or any single rule or combination of those rules, and in his official capacity as a District Court Judge, Eighth Judicial District Court, Department 8, County of Clark, State of Nevada, by knowingly engaging in an act, a combination of acts, or all of the following acts that occurred relevant to these charges:

A. In State of Nevada v. Daniels, Case Nos. C304976 and C305032, the Respondent held a calendar call hearing in his courtroom on May 11, 2016. At the hearing, the Defendant, Mr. Daniels, the Defendant's court appointed attorney, Mr. Claus, and the prosecutor, Ms. Pandukht, were present. There were many other persons also present in the courtroom.

Defense counsel had previously filed a motion to continue the trial date which was set for May 23, 2016. The motion was unopposed by the prosecutor. When the hearing began, the Defendant requested the appointment of a new attorney because his attorney had allegedly failed to file a motion contending that the State had failed to comply with its obligation to disclose all exculpatory evidence, commonly known as Brady discovery. The Defendant claimed that the State had failed to disclose this evidence to his defense attorney. The Respondent denied the Defendant's motion for the appointment of new counsel.

Throughout the hearing, Respondent failed to treat the Defendant and his lawyer in a patient, dignified, and courteous manner. Instead, Respondent repeatedly threatened that he would order the trial to commence in only twelve days and deny the unopposed motion to continue the trial. Respondent did so even though defense counsel attempted to explain that he was not adequately prepared for trial.

Respondent subsequently threatened the Defendant with the forced application of duct tape to the Defendant's mouth if the Defendant continued to make any further verbal statements to the Court. The threat to forcibly apply duct tape to the Defendant's mouth was excessive under the circumstances. The Respondent's conduct throughout the hearing was marked by rudeness and sarcasm.

B. In State of Nevada v. Turner, Case No. C314750, the Respondent held a sentencing hearing in his courtroom on August 31, 2016. The Defendant, Mr. Turner, was convicted of child abuse for kicking a five-year-old boy in the face. The Respondent sentenced the Defendant to 28 to 72 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections, which was the maximum sentence allowed under the plea agreement.

After issuing the sentence, Respondent muttered under his breath, but still loud enough to be heard, "I hope this follows you to the prison." This comment is clearly heard on the JAVS recording and is contained in the official court transcript. In his interview with the Judicial Commission investigator, Respondent falsely denied that he made the entire comment and stated, "No, no, I did not say I hope it follows you. I said, 'This will follow you.' We were reading from a doctor's report." The comment "I hope this follows you to the prison" had the appearance that Respondent wished harm upon the Defendant in prison.

- 2. Respondent admits to all the allegations brought against him in Counts One (1) and Two (2) in the Formal Statement of Charges, and, more specifically, in paragraphs (1) (A) and (B) as set forth above.
- 3. Respondent agrees to waive his right to present his case and contest the allegations set forth above in a formal hearing pursuant to Commission Procedural Rule 18. Respondent also agrees that this Stipulation and Order of Consent to Discipline ("Order") takes effect immediately pursuant to Rule 29. The Commission accepts Respondent's waiver of said rights and acknowledges and agrees to the immediate effect of this Order. Respondent further agrees to appear before the Commission in a public proceeding, if required by the Commission, to discuss this Order in more detail and answer any questions from the Commissioners related to this case.
- 4. Respondent agrees and acknowledges that this Order will be published on the Commission's website and filed with the Clerk of the Nevada Supreme Court pursuant to Rule 29.
- 5. Respondent and the Commission hereby stipulate to Respondent's consent to public censure pursuant to Rule 29 and Respondent's agreement to complete, at Respondent's expense, a National Judicial College course entitled Ethics and Judging: Reaching Higher Ground, or such similar class as may be available with approval by the Commission's Executive Director, and payment of a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) to an appropriate law-related charity as approved by the Commission's Executive Director, pursuant to the Nevada Constitution, Article 6, Section 21,

1 and 5(a) and (b) ("Section 21"); NRS 1.4653(1) and (2); NRS 1.4677(1)(a),(b), and (d)(2); and Rule 29. Respondent stipulates to the following substantive provisions:

- Respondent agrees the evidence available to the Commission would establish by (a) clear and convincing proof that he violated the Code, including Judicial Canon 1, Rules 1.1 and 1.2; Canon 2, Rules 2.2, 2.3(B), 2.5(A), 2.8(B), and 2.16(A).
- (b) Respondent agrees the discipline of public censure; his agreement to complete, at Respondent's expense, a National Judicial College course entitled Ethics and Judging: Reaching Higher Ground, or such similar class as may be available with approval by the Commission's Executive Director within six (6) months of the filing date of this Order; and his agreement to pay a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) to an appropriate law-related charity as approved by the Commission's Executive Director within six (6) months of the filing date of this Order, is authorized by Rule 29; Section 21; NRS 1.4653(1) and (2); and NRS 1.4677(1)(a), (b) and (d)(2).
- (c) Respondent stipulates to a public censure and agrees to complete a National Judicial College course and pay a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1500) for violations of the Code Rules as set forth in paragraphs 1(A) through (B) above.
- (d) Respondent stipulates and agrees that failure to comply with all the requirements of this Order shall result in Respondent being permanently removed from the bench and forever barred from serving as a judicial officer in the future pursuant to NRS 1.4677(1)(e).
- 6. The Respondent understands and agrees that by accepting the terms of this Order, he waives his right to appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court, pursuant to Rule 3D of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure.
