1 ANALYSIS OF FACTS

2 The Respondent relies upon the original points and authorities filed in support of her position
3 that additional time is needed to present the defense. It is recognized that more likely than not the 4 Special Prosecutor will call Judge Hughes as a witness and during the Respondent's case in chief 5 likewise the Respondent will be called as a witness. At least in the Respondent's case this will take 6 up a period of time. While the Special Prosecutor classifies this case as not complex in nature it was 7 exceedingly long and on-going and involved multiple court appearances. An explanation of each 8 of those appearances to a certain degree is critically important so that the panel can understand what 9 led up to the ultimate hearing for which the Respondent faces the Commission. The Special 10 Prosecutor in his response is critical of the defense/Respondent because the Respondent fails to 11 identify the substance of the testimony of potential Respondent witnesses. What is important is not 12 necessarily at this point in time the substance of their testimony but the fact that they will be 13 testifying and they like others will have to go to Reno, Nevada to do that.

14 CONCLUSION

15 For the above-indicated reasons, it is respectfully requested that the period of time be 16 expanded from four hours to a minimum of eight hours for purposes of the Respondent's case.

17 DATED this 23rd day of March, 2018.
