

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

JENNIFER HENRY,
Petitioner,
vs.
NEVADA COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE,
Respondent.

No. 75675

FILED

MAY 24 2018

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING STAY

This original petition for a writ of prohibition challenges the Nevada Commission on Judicial Discipline's jurisdiction over hearing masters. After we ordered the Commission to respond to the petition, petitioner moved to stay the Commission's upcoming public hearing on the charges against her until the petition is resolved. We temporarily stayed the judicial discipline proceedings pending our receipt and consideration of any opposition from the Commission, and we now consider the request for a stay together with the Commission's opposition thereto and petitioner's reply.

In determining whether to grant a stay pending resolution of a writ petition, this court considers the following factors: (1) whether the object of the petition will be defeated if the stay is denied; (2) whether petitioner will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay is denied; (3) whether real parties in interest will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay is granted; and (4) whether petitioner is likely to prevail on the merits of the petition. Having considered the parties' filings in light of these factors, we conclude that petitioner has shown a substantial case on the merits presenting a serious legal question sufficient, when viewed with the potential defeat of the object of the petition, the potential harm to petitioner, and the lack of facts demonstrating serious injury to the public from any delay, to warrant a stay. See Fritz Hansen v. Eight Judicial Dist. Court, 116 Nev. 650, 659, 6 P.3d 982, 987 (2000). Accordingly, we grant petitioner's motion for a stay of the judicial discipline proceedings against her in Case No. 2016-142-P, pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
